Making DDA'S functioning corruption free

387. SHRI PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the efforts made by Government to make DDA corruption free and to streamline its functioning;

(b) whether it is a fact that corruption is at its peak in DDA despite its various claims of transparency;

(c) whether it is also a fact that a person has to run for months together to this office for general works like mutation and conversion to freehold his property despite fulfilling various formalities;

(d) if not, the prescribed norms/time frame for speedy disposal of said work and provision made for non-compliance to the above time frame; and

(e) the category-wise details of pending applications in the said office?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI AJAY MAKEN): (a) and (b) Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has taken various steps to streamline its functioning. Those include steps taken for information dissemination and facilitation, system improvement and redressal of grievances. In addition, systematic improvement has been made in allotment of institutional land, alternative plots, conversion of property from lease hold to free hold and videography of vacant, encroached land. In addition, many changes have been brought about in the Engineering Department including Third Party Quality Assurance. Steps have also been taken to upgrade the quality control laboratories, computerizations of various transactions pertaining to allotment of flats and land, collection of data base and monitoring of public grievances.

(c) and (d) DDA has reported that as per norms conversion applications which are complete in all respects including required documents are finalized within the time-frame of 90 days. Similarly, all the mutation requests complete with required documents are finalized in the given time limit of 30 days. The reasons for delay in such cases are incomplete applications, court cases and title disputes.

(e) The details of pending applications as on 30.6.2006 as reported by DDA are as under:-

	Conversion	Mutation
Lands	6430	194
Housing	2090	76
